

Our Town

By J. E. White

Thinking people will not overlook the part that railroads have played in the march of America, nor are they apt to forget what the Washington government is doing, and has done for some time, to rehabilitate railway values and their direct bearing upon the economic security of the nation.

Railroads not only employ millions of workers but pay a lion's share of the nation's taxes. Their relation to securities and hundreds of major investments in the country make them at once the heart of American industry. It is undeniable, though regrettable, that other systems of transportation, have, in recent years flourished without burden of taxation and national investment, to such an extent that it became necessary for the government to make railroad stability a special objective in national recovery.

So certain a part of every community, no matter how small, their welfare is of vital concern to all. Their progress and decline, relatively affect every industry, large or small.

This brings us to consideration of a pending matter of importance to Cameron. There is scheduled for our town a hearing before the Railroad Commission of Texas on application for permit to operate two transit lines for truck transportation. The hearing is scheduled for February 11 at which time the Commission hopes to obtain first hand knowledge of whether these lines are necessary and whether Cameron and Texas needs them.

The tax records of Milam county should be an index to the value of our railroads. They hold a convincing argument in favor of transportation that bears a just proportion of the expenses of the government, thus turning back into the territory it serves something in return.

In 1934 railroads in Milam county paid $32,208.18 in taxes. In the space of 30 years this sum computed would more than pay the bonded debts of the people. Directly these taxes are applicable to the support of schools and roads.

It is one of the astounding penalties of modern years that railroads have been forced to pay the major share of road bond taxes for roads that support truck transit lines that never pay a dollar into the treasuries of local governments. Not only is this true but roads bought and paid for by local farms and ranches have been utilized to a large extent by commercial traffic operations whose only contribution thus far is the average gasoline tax to which every private car owner is also subject but has not the means to profit from Texas highways. It is illuminating to know the proportion of gasoline consumption as relates to privately owned cars.

The railroad companies were in early days the beneficiaries of lavish land grants and building sites and while it is true these gifts have become enhanced in value along with other properties, it nevertheless remains a striking challenge that the railways have met every demand of modern day progress and have shared in the burdens of taxation to hold much in common with the average American industry both farm and factory.

Restrict their incomes to the cycle of impoverishment and immeasurable harm is done to our city. Sustain their right to haulage and economic security is made fast to millions of American workers with resultant stabilizing effect on investment and securities.

Our town congratulates Senator Bob Poage for his vote in the Texas Senate that rejected the Child Labor Amendment to the Federal Constitution. For ten years this amendment has knocked at the door of the Senate. Its denial for a decade has meant 10 more years of freedom for the right of the American home to determine the destiny of its own children. The power of Congress for further invasion, we trust has been definitely stopped. While congratulating our own Texas Senate, we take

ASK TRUCK LINE HEARING 3 TAKEN IN ROGERS BURGLAR ATTEMPT

COMMISSION MAY MEET IN CITY FEB. 11

Hearing on the proposed Truck Line Route from Temple to Bellville and from Waco to LaGrange may be held in Cameron, it was disclosed by E. C. Cole, Southern Pacific Agent here.

The Railroad Commission has the application of truck operators. C. V. Terrell, chairman of the Commission has expressed the desire to hold the hearing in Cameron set for Monday February 11.

Cameron would be the intersection of the lines with a possible terminal here. The Wortham truck lines now operate through Cameron. The railway companies are opposing the application filed for the permit.

The meeting would bring to Cameron representatives of the railroad commission and many interested parties from over the state. It was said the meeting might consume two days. Definite announcement of its site will likely be made this week.

A petition has been signed by Cameron business men asking the commission to hold the meeting in Cameron.

TRACK MEET TO BE HELD HERE MARCH 9

The annual invitation track meet will be held here on March 9, the preliminaries in the forenoon and the finals at night.

Sixteen teams entered last year and all schools have been asked to enter again. Three boys who entered last year placed in state meet. Horace Taylor of Luling won state 440 yard dash; Ferguson of New Salem won state shot put and Elms of McGregor placed third in state 100 yard dash.

Masons To Meet In Called Session

The Masters Degree will be conferred Wednesday evening, February 6 in San Andres Lodge A. F. & A. M.

The meeting is being called by W. E. Smith, Worshipful Master of the Lodge. The meeting is called to confer the degree and the lodge will meet at 7:30 p. m. All Master Masons are requested to attend.

Court House Holds Vast Store of History in Vivid Drama of Old Days

Milam county's court house completed in 1893 is impressive in architecture, and when the present job of cleaning its walls is finished will be restored to the original rich, bright color it was that April day in 1892 when the Commissioners Court inspected and accepted it from the contractors.

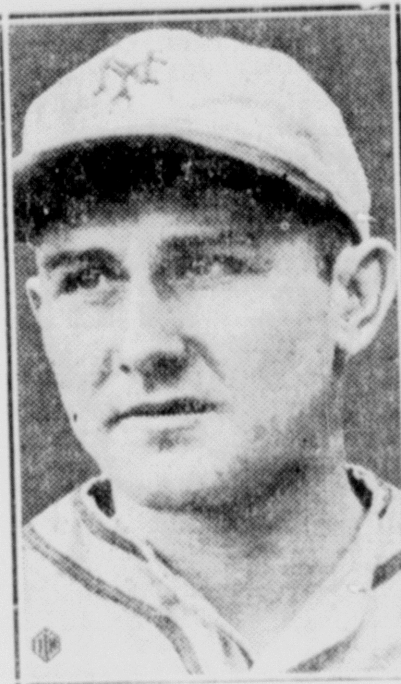

County Judge Jeff T. Kemp and County Auditor Conn R. Isaacs; Commissioners Grady Stidham, Walter Fuchs, R. S. Cloud and E. G. Stiles all are happy to share in the responsibility for restoring the rich cream color of the limestone walls.

Back of this structure in history's inevitable urn lie the ashes and crumbling ruins of three other structures erected in the period from 1846 to 1892. The present court house was completed in 1892 with the exception of the tower and clock built in 1893.

History Written

The Herald presents for the first time an exclusive historical sketch, with comments, by Miss Kathryn Robbins, written when a junior student.

this occasion also to commend the National Senate for the rejection of the World Court, although both Texas Senators voted to go in. Next to recovery America's greatest need is to debunk the national lunatics who want to meddle in the affairs of Europe.

HOMER PEEL

Former New York Giant star and Cardinal outfielder, Homer Peel, is spending the winter months at home in Maysfield and Port Sullivan. He will soon leave for training camp. Released by the Giants he went to the American Association and may be with Buffalo this season.

Bill Baskin Buys Bonds Station Here

W. H. (Bill) Baskin has purchased the Bonds Service Station. In this issue will be found a newspaper announcement from Mr. Baskin who will continue the business under the firm name of Bonds Service Station for the present.

The station under Mr. Baskin will continue to sell Texaco products, specialties in battery sales and service and car washing and greasing.

Walter Dossett To Brazil By Plane to Study Cotton Crop

Walter Dossett of the Cameron Compress Company in company with Edward Hoch with the Pape Williams & Co., cotton merchants in Waco, are in Brazil to study cotton production.

They left Waco two weeks ago by Pan American air liner flying to Rio De Janeiro. Their headquarters will be in the Sao Paulo cotton district in Southern Brazil.

Compress possibilities will be taken into consideration as well as a careful study of the Brazilian crop.

PATMAN BONUS PLAN FAVORED BY VETS

The Patman plan of bonus payment is favored by former servicemen in Milam county.

The county wide meeting here Monday night resulted in passage of a resolution favoring the Patman plan and opposing the plan favored by the Legion. The Patman plan is to pay the bonus with printed currency without levying a tax.

The resolution was sent to Senators Connally and Sheppard and Congressman Cross, and Congressman Patman.

Grady Little, local post commander called the meeting. John Weed of Rockdale explained the pending bills. The resolution by telegram was signed by Grady Little, Clyde Franklin of Rockdale, A. A. Bathorn of Rosebud and Lon Peeples of Milam.

The resolution was drawn by John Weed, E. B. Hesse of Burlington and Claud Akers of Cameron and E. O. Strickler of Rockdale.

MACHINE SHOP TAKES JOHN DEERE AGENCY

Of interest to the farming communities of the trade area is the announcement by the Cameron Machine Shop that the firm has accepted the agency for John Deere Farm Implements.

These implements are now on display at the machine shop. A John Deere tractor is on display and the firm has already sold much equipment.

The Cameron Machine Shop will stock a complete line of implements and tractors and all repairs, giving farmers the benefit of a first class store and agency.

For nearly a hundred years the John Deere line of implements have been manufactured. "John Deere gave the world the first steel plow," said Will Michalka, manager of the firm here. "Deere implements need no special introduction to the farmers. We feel that this line has so many friends that our agency here will be a welcome service and we look for a big volume of farm business because we not only will carry a complete line of implements and tractors but will stock repairs and give service," said Mr. Michalka.

A big stock of farm hardware is now being carried, including plow points and general farm supplies.

Ray Duckworth To Direct Music For Itasca Meeting

Ray Duckworth, music and educational director at the First Baptist church has been invited to direct the music for the Pastor's Retreat meeting in Itasca from February 4 to 8.

The retreat is the annual meeting of pastors for conferences. This year four are being held in Texas and Mr. Duckworth is one of the four musical directors in the state to attend officially.

Among the noted ministers to appear on the program are Dr. George W. Trueitt of Dallas; Dr. Lee Scarborough of Fort Worth; Dr. W. H. McKinzie of Abilene. Each will bring a special sermon to the distinguished group of church workers.

McLane & McLane In Food Sale Offerings

McLane & McLane Grocery will be the storm center of food bargains this week end. A large number of quotations are made with lower price trends for the big sale announced for buyers this week.

It is their first sale for the 1935 merchandising program. In this issue of the Herald will be found a long list of bargains for sale. Much additional merchandise has been purchased to make this a big and beneficial event.

Curtis Morgan, 34, was shot to death as he attempted to escape the guns of Sheriff John R. Bigham and deputies in Rogers shortly after midnight Monday.

Morgan fell mortally wounded with a charge of shot from a sawed-off shotgun. The body was brought to Cameron by Leland Green Funeral Home and placed in the morgue. He was wounded in the left shoulder and back.

Mike Treadwell, 30, of near Rogers was wounded and captured along with Steve Lewis whose long criminal record has led officers to label him Public Enemy No. 1 of Central Texas.

Both Lewis and Treadwell are in Bell County jail. They were captured and Morgan was slain as they entered the Skinner Store in Rogers. The officers were laying in wait, having been tipped about the robbery attempt. Sheriff Bigham commanded the robbers to throw up their hands. Instead they attempted to escape. Lewis was not wounded.

When the men broke in the store they went directly to the safe. When asked to halt, the men ran behind the safe as if to use it for a barricade, said Sheriff Bigham. The officers then opened fire. About ten shots were fired. The men then surrendered. Morgan was found to be mortally wounded and died within a few minutes.

Records here do not show that Morgan was ever under criminal indictment. Steve Lewis has a long criminal record. His latest sojourn at the walls was for robbery of 13 stores in Killeen. He got 15 years and served his sentence. He was not pardoned.

Treadwell was once indicted for robbery of the Little River postoffice, says Sheriff Bigham. Neither of the men were armed the night of the shooting.

Funeral services for Morgan were held Tuesday afternoon at the family residence here with burial at Bryant Station where he was born, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan. The funeral service was conducted by A. J. Frisby of the Gospel Tabernacle.

Farm Census Enumerators Named For Milam County; Work To Begin Soon

Federal farm census enumerators for Milam county were announced Tuesday as follows:

No. 1, W. F. Sharpe, Davilla; 2, Sam L. Graham, Buckholts route 1; 3, John T. Kuzel, Buckholts route 2; 4, Paul S. Dillon, Burlington; 5, J. A. McKinney, Jones Prairie; 6, W. T. Phipps, Maysfield; 7, J. D. Link, Cameron; 8, August Knipp, Ben Arnold; 9, L. S. Cunningham, Gause; 10, Tracy Hobson, Cameron; 11, J. O. Hughes, Cameron route 1; 12, Eph. M. Chandler, Thorndale; 13, Claude

E. Moses Rockdale route 2.

Stanton E. Dossett of Cameron said that the numbers preceding the name indicates the census district division for each enumerator, justice precinct lines having been disregarded in order to more evenly distribute the work. Wesley Mann of Waco, assistant supervisor for the 9th census district was in Cameron Tuesday to confer with enumerators. T. J. Burdette is supervisor for the district. Census enumeration will begin at once.

FILM STUDIO HERE FEB. 9

Woodmen Circle Names Officers

The Woodmen Circle has elected and installed officers for the year. In the report last week of the election an omission was made. Mrs. Mammie Howell was elected Guardian and Mrs. Nannie Price was elected Advisor. The publishers are glad to make this correction. Mrs. Howell has been for many years a faithful and influential member of the Circle.

C. N. Green & Son Offer Big Values

The pioneer store, C. N. Green & Son are in the week end food bargain sales in a big way this week. Lower prices will prevail on better food products and a special offering is made on Friday and Saturday.

For many years this store has been one of the leading stores of Central Texas and these sales are making buying advantages in Cameron more attractive.

H. P. Moeller of Buckholts paid a visit to Cameron Saturday of last week.

Inscription On Rock Found Near Sharpe May Relate to Early Life of Steven F. Austin, Colonizer and Texas Patriot

An interesting discovery made in April 1933 near Sharpe has just come to light and local historians are speculating on the possibility of its bearing upon the life of Stephen F. Austin, Texas patriot.

Alfred Dittmar has brought to the office of the Herald a flint boulder heavily lime crusted on which appears the following: "S F A 1831." First inclination is to credit the inscription as meaning "Stephen F. Austin, 1831." Whether authentic remains to be proven.

The rock was found on the Dittmar farm in 1933. Young Dittmar picked it from the ground to toss at some turkeys when his eyes caught the lettering. The site where found is about a quarter mile from Alligator Creek and at the site of an old Indian village where many flint arrows have been found. The hillside slopes in typical topography of the average Indian village. Nearly is the famous well about which many stories have been written and around which is an Indian village.

Austin's story is familiar to every school child in Texas. He died in 1836. He was defeated by Sam Houston for president of Texas but served as Secretary of State in the Houston cabinet. He went to Washington in 1835 after his imprisonment in Mexico City, to get aid for the struggling republic. At one time he was commander in chief of the armies of Texas.

A correspondent wants to know what we think of the wrestling game, otherwise described as the grunt, groan and squeal racket. We don't know too much about it, but have a little reason to suspect that it is overcrowded with honesty of purpose. For that matter, boxing hasn't been too straight. The fans go to see the bad actors in the wrestling bouts, like the way they claw at each other and delightedly chirp over the regularity with which the grunTERS fight the referee. As an act, the wrestlers put on a good show and they are drawing fair gates.

This merely goes to show what Ty Cobb and other baseball players have observed, that the spectator wants fight and plenty of it. The baseball teams of some years ago were supposed to be ready to murder their opponents at the drop of the hat, and if the hat didn't fall, just for fun. It was an apple pie to the fans who picked up hatreds that were apparently those of their favorites. Some observers today say that what baseball needs more than anything else to regain popularity and the box office intake, is more and better feuds. Maybe so.

Who remembers Luis Angel Firpo, giant from the Argentine, who knocked the redoubtable Dempsey through the ropes and almost took the championship? That was more than twelve years ago but nobody who saw the hectic battle will forget it. Anyway, the big man is scheduled to try a comeback in this country. He will go through a tune-up, tackle a few promising contenders and then, if he has the old punch, get a trial against Max Baer, or Joe Louis, the astounding Negro boxer in Chicago some time this spring.

Firpo is 36, but the promoters, noted for finding reasons why anybody can box before a fight, declare that he has always been a clean liver and kept himself in condition by training in and about the mountains near Buenos Aires. Now, personally, we don't know how many mountains there are around the Argentine city, and will have to wait for the South stuff before voting him a chance to American mammoth to show his 1935 get in the big circle.

Babe Ruth's status for next season continues to intrigue baseball fans with the New York Yankees insisting that they will give him to any team that wants him as a manager, but will not sell him to play for anybody else. This looks fair enough to us, but the Bambino affirms that he will not be in the ballpark for anybody unless he is a manager. Then, along came a story that some circus offered him $75,000 a year to ride an elephant in the parade. Imagine the Babe upon the tusk of a pachyderm. Maybe they could get another elephant to throw a ball at him and have him hit it a mile!

The arrival of Calvacade at the Santa Anna race course has intensified the ballyhoo about the big race to be run on the 23rd of February. With Twenty Grand, Equipose and Mate on the scene, it is natural for racing enthusiasts to expect one of the most spectacular races of years. However, there are some side remarks slipping eastward, to the effect that Twenty Grand was taken to the scene merely for publicity, that his sensational workouts follow reports of lameness. It is noted that the big horse, which has entered in several races, is always scratched for one reason or another. Despite all this, the race ought to be worth going miles to see!

Kaye Don, who served ten weeks of a four months sentence in a British jail because his mechanic was killed on a trial spin preparatory for a race, is to spend some time in Florida, resting and getting over the experience. He is under orders from his physician not to race for a while. Meanwhile, Sir Malcolm Campbell, in his reconditioned Bluebird, will seek to break his own speed record on the

The U. S. Polo Association has ratified the rating shakeup removing Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., from ten goals for the first time in fourteen years. Two Western Stars, who shared the ten goal honors with Tommy, are also dropped. Nine goal ratings were given to Hitchcock, Cecil Smith and Winston Guest. The latter was advanced a goal. For the first time since 1916 the association has no player with the highest handicap but the country's players still dominate the international list. Only one other star, the Nawab of Bhopal, an Indian potentate, is ranked as high as nine goals.

The baseball front remains somewhat quiet, with the Boston Braves' management working to get their financial ends arranged by the 5th of February. The club has more trouble than the efforts of a dog racing outfit to get hold of the playing field but it is hoped that matters will be straightened out. . . The Detroit Tigers expect no trouble with its championship outfit so far as terms are concerned and hopes that Schoolboy Rowe's pitching arm will be in shape. . . Since the Black Sox scandalized

How a nation-wide telephone network is organized

The Bell System is big, but its organization is not complex.

The A. T. & T. is parent company, service and research organization, and financial headquarters of the System. It owns Western Electric, which buys and manufactures for the System at prices about a fourth below the prices of similar equipment in the competitive market. Jointly with Western, it owns Bell Laboratories, where science constantly seeks better and cheaper methods of giving you telephone service.

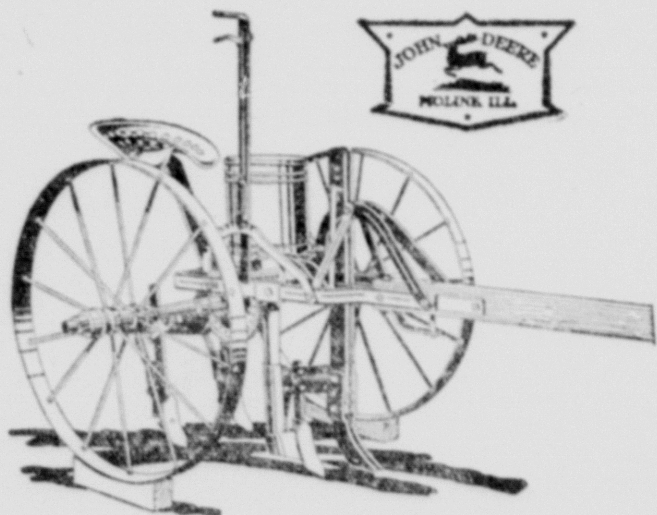

It owns more than 90 per cent of the voting stock of the 24 associated companies (of which the Southwestern Company is one) and it operates the long distance trunk lines linking the territories of these companies. Its staff carries on for these companies a constant search for more economical ways to give good telephone service.

Each part of the organization exists because the function it performs is essential to the job of giving good telephone service at fair cost to you.

TEXAS HISTORY IN THE MAKING

Dallas Before It Became "Big" Dallas

—Think—Talk—Write—Texas Centennial—In 1936

All cities must have their beginnings and growing pains. Texas has an abundance of fine thriving cities—cities that have sprung up overnight, grown into the sky from flat plains; cities that have mushroomed between oil wells and along water fronts. Here is a picture of Dallas, made in 1874, one of the rarest in existence. Dallas was a wooden town with wooden sidewalks. The only stone building to be seen in this picture is the store of Mr. Lobenstein, where hides, wool and "peltries," whatever they are, were bought and sold. The population of Dallas at that time was about 7,000. Now greater Dallas boasts 300,000 inhabitants. All of Texas has grown proportionately in population during the last 60 years. # 214 Year Old Pecan Tree Cut Down At Norman Valley Bridge

Was 50 Years Old When American Independence Declared Agent Reports

Travelers along the roadway leading from Ad Hall through the Norman Valley Community have looked with wonderment upon the sprawling trunk of a massive pecan tree felled in 1929.

It lies within a few feet of the store of C. D. (Red) Raby in a slight bend of Little River about 100 yards from the Norman Valley Bridge. The trunk where severed from the stump measures more than four feet in diameter.

In comparison with surrounding timber that fringes the picturesque winding river the tree is a monarch of another age and almost prehistoric growth.

Analysis Made

The Herald has received from Mr. Raby an exclusive interesting analysis of the tree and its age made by the Bureau of Plant Industry of the United States Department of Agriculture. The letter is written by L. D. Romberg of the Bureau offices in Austin.

Mr. Romberg says that the nut which produced this tree ripened not later than October of 1720 and probably several years before that date. The approximate age of the tree when cut down in 1929 was 214 years. When the tree had grown to a height of about 4 1-2 feet the trunk section was sawed by an ancient woodman, a minute examination disclosed.

One Inch In 1729

At the end of 1729 the trunk was approximately one inch in diameter at the point examined from the section submitted, and some three or four years old.

Continuing Mr. Romberg says: "The tree was evidently growing in the shade of heavy timber and among dense undergrowth for many years and barely keeping alive in its struggle with its neighbors for existence. The early growth was so slow that at the end of 1761 the tree was only 3 1-2 inches in diameter. Beginning with 1762 growth was a little faster and at the end of 1786 the diameter was 8 1-2 inches. Then the tree evidently reached the sunlight above and growth was comparatively faster and rather consistent up through 1845 when the tree was approximately 30 inches in diameter. From 1846 to 1864 growth was poor and it looks like the tree was about to die. Thereafter it grew better but not as well as from 1780 to 1845 and the rings are more variable. In July 1929 when the tree was cut down the diameter was approximately 48 1-2 inches."

Here follows a table showing the annual growth of the tree from 1731 to 1929. The best growth made by the tree was approximately 11-16 inch in 1811. The average growth of the tree was less than 3-4 inch annually in circumference and less than a quarter inch in diameter.

Drought Years

An interesting weather chart over a period of 171 years in included in the report of Mr. Romberg. The age as well as growth of the tree is determined by rings in its trunk, easily discernable in the wood. Small expansion rings in the trunk occurred in extremely dry years. Thus very severe droughts are indicated for the years 1824, 1846, 1857 and 1887. Other dry years are as follows: 1758, 1760, 1771, 1777, 1786, 1805, 1806, 1807, 1813, 1820, 1821, 1842, 1847, 1880, 1901, 1902, 1917, 1918 and 1925. The severe drought of 1917 and 1918 so weakened the tree that it was unable to take advantage of the wet year of 1919. A similar condition may have been true at other times.

Historic Speculation

"It would be interesting," says Mr. Romberg, "to know what happened within sight of this tree during its lifetime. No doubt Indians often camped nearby and gathered nuts that it had produced. No doubt many a fine turkey gobbler has perched within its boughs. No doubt undisturbed wild life existed within its surroundings many years before the first white vandal saw the tree."

"In 1776 at the time of the Declaration of American independence the tree was already more than 50 years old. In 1836, 60 years later, at the time when Texas won its independence, it was past 110 years old and over two feet in diameter. In 1929, when the tree was cut alive, it was more than 200 years old. If it had not been cut it might have lived many more years. What required many a solitary day in time and wonders on the part of nature to produce was soon destroyed by man."

TOOK THE CHANCE: DYING

New York.—George S. Ward lies in a hospital dying of heart trouble and anema said to be the result of drinking a glass of liquid highly impregnated with typhus germs in 1904, when he was a member of the Army Medical Corps. He volunteered to take a chance to aid humanity, and a bill has been introduced in Congress to give him a pension of $125 a month.

Kept Taking Cardui Until She Got Rid of the Severe Pains

When Mrs. Ida Hege, of Edinburg, Ind., was in a painful, run-down condition, she took Cardui, with the results she describes below: "I had just been what one might say dragging around, feeling miserable and all out of sorts. I remembered how Cardui helped my aunt. I sent for six bottles of Cardui and when I had taken them, I was much better and stronger. I did not suffer so much pain. I continued taking Cardui until I had taken nine bottles. I do not have the severe pains." . . . Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

Minding Russia's Business

We see by the papers where a group of prominent Americans, "in a friendly spirit," have registered a protest against Russia's "secret political trials."

What we would like to know is by what right do American citizens speak to the Russians. When foreign countries act contrary to our ideals we should, it seems to us, recognize that this is our country and that people in other countries are alone concerned with what their governments do.

We may regret their course but it is none of our business to be "protesting." The same habit crops up whenever Germany, Ireland and other nations run their affairs to suit themselves but somewhat against the notions of some of our guardians of the universe.

Watch the Advertiser

When a citizen opens a business in Cameron he has a right to look for the cordial co-operation of all citizens here. They should, as far as business judgment warrants, give him their business. Let every good citizen bear this in mind.

Advertisers in the Herald are those business men who insist that you come to see them. Every time they put an advertisement in our columns they invite the public to judge them on their merits. No merchant advertises unless he thinks he has the goods; as loyal boosters for Cameron it is the business of every Cameron builder to see whether he is right before giving business to other sections.

A Changed Sentiment

A changed sentiment seems to be apparent in the general attitude of citizens toward Federal agents.

A few years ago, largely as a result of the ravings of wet newspapers, every time a Federal agent shot any body he was held up to scorn and the law enforcement arm of the government riddled with sarcasm.

The other day in Florida, suspects in the kidnapping of Edward J. Bremer, St. Paul banker, were shot to death. A woman and her son were the victims, but no outcry came from the press or the public. Sentiment was with the agents who attempted to capture but killed when resisted.

You can draw your own conclusions.

Prolong Your Own Life

One of the most significant trends in advancing, or prolonging, human life is the stress that is being laid upon periodical health examinations. There are many diseases that kill only because of ignorance that they exist. People think they are well and for that reason ignore the sound advice of leading physicians that they allow themselves to be examined regularly by thoroughly trained and scientific men.

There are many diseases that begin insidiously, without throwing pain into the body to warn the vic-

Cardui Helped Lady For Nervousness and Run-Down Condition

"I have taken Cardui several times for weak, run-down condition and it has helped me," writes Mrs. Walter M. Coulon, of Forsyth, Ga. "I was nervous and suffering from a weak condition. There were days when I had to lie down during the day. I sent for six bottles of Cardui, as it had helped me before. Cardui gave me strength, stopped the nervousness and helped me in every way." Cardui may be just what you need. It can't do you any harm, so why not try it? Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician. 61 a bottle, at drug stores.

tim. They can be detected by a competent examination and arrested at inception, but if allowed to develop unmolested, invariably kill.

Readers of the Herald have seen this idea before in our columns. They will see it again. In the meantime, there is no sense in reading our warning unless you act upon it. That means, be examined at once. If you think you are well and sound, see that you are.

Business Isn't Bothered

While the country awaits the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the gold clause cases with interest there is very little evidence that anybody is greatly worried.

Dun and Bradstreet's, generally accepted as reliable authority on business, says that nearly every branch of business is attaining a more accelerated pace than was set a year ago. Since 1932 the business activity index has moved from 50.1 to 73.9 and now stands 17.1 ahead of last year.

Other great economists insist that natural forces are now moving to end the depression and that nothing can prevent the up-turn from making progress. Of course, unwise legislation and foolish acts can thwart it to some extent but, so great are the natural resources of this country, the check will be temporary.

Express Your Disapproval

Editors of newspapers, like the Herald, like to hear from their readers. They do not, contrary to the usual idea, seek complete and unanimous agreement with their views. The reader of this journal, who dissents intelligently, does us a real service in writing a letter, stating properly and temperately the reasons which, in his mind, make our conclusions wrong.

No sensible man expects that his opinions are the opinions of all men. That differences of opinion exist is one of the good things in life. It would be extremely miserable if one did not find diverging conclusions from the conflicting evidence upon which mortal man tries to evolve the truth.

About Education

There are a number of readers of the Herald who have not had the privilege of attending college. Some of them, no doubt, are under the idea that they are not "educated." They may be right, and they may be wrong. Education is not a question of going through any school or college, or university.

One of the prime accomplishments of an educated man, as we see it, is to be able to co-operate intelligently with his fellow man. This means a willingness, as well as an ability, to get along with other members of the social group. No matter how much a man may know, or how many degrees he may have, he is far from educated if he is unable to meet his neighbors on common ground and work together for the common good.

There are readers of the Herald who have never seen inside of a college, who, nevertheless, are better educated than many degree holders. They may be a little bit short on intelligence, of a certain type, but they are long on common sense and they have picked up enough information to be able to cooperate.

This article is not to disparage education. It is rather to encourage those who cannot go to college. Let them keep up, as best they can, with current affairs, read as much as they can about subjects they do not know and never forget that true education is what a man learns and makes his own, not what he gets out of a book merely for the purpose of making a recitation that will pass him.

Brisbane's Aerial Ghosts

The eminent editorial writer, Arthur Brisbane, sees spooks and ghosts every time aviation scores a spectacular triumph. Miss Earhart's flight across the waters that separate our western coast from Hawaii made him see, at once, a mighty armada of 5,000 planes, bombing the coast, speeding to the east and tearing up our cities.

Of course, he didn't tell where the 5,000 planes were hidden at this time or what the American Army, Navy and Marine corps' flying machines would be doing while the "enemy" rained bombs upon us. Maybe, they will be reading Mr. Brisbane's interesting editorials and forget to look up into the sky.

W. G. Ditto, well known farmer of Silver City, paid a business visit to Cameron Saturday. Mr. Ditto has been living in Milam county for over a quarter of a century.

D. A. R.

Mrs. E. B. Phillips and Miss Emma Porter of Rockdale entertained the Cameron Chapter Sarah McCalla D. A. R. in the home of Mrs. Phillips last Saturday afternoon. The home was beautifully decorated with red roses and ranunculus.

Mrs. R. H. McIntosh, regent, presided over the meeting. Mrs. Jeff T. Kemp opened the meeting with ritual form. Roll call was answered by giving names and descriptions of famous ministers.

Good reports from all standing committees were made. A financial report was given by the treasurer, Mrs. Graham Gillis.

Following the business session, election of officers was held. Regent, Mrs. R. H. McIntosh; Vice Regent, Mrs. Tiff Moore; Treasurer, Mrs. Graham Gillis; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Bertha S. Brewer; Historian, Mrs. Jeff T. Kemp; Librarian, Mrs. T. S. Henderson; Honorary Regent, Mrs. Pearl Clement; Chaplain, Mrs. T. V. Adams. Miss Ruth Kemp was elected delegate to attend the annual convention to be held in Washington, D. C. in May.

Delicious refreshments were served from the tea table in the dining room. Mrs. Edward Douglas of Taylor, assisted Mrs. Perry in pouring coffee. Guests who called for the social hour were Mrs. P. H. Perry, Mrs. Conn Isaacs, Mrs. Roundtree and Mrs. Barklay.

COURT HOUSE

court house. The city limits were defined in the survey made by A. W. Sullivan, Benjamin Bryant, Daniel Monroe and John Hobson. Daniel Monroe was a Texas Ranger and Indian fighter and kinsman of the Monroe family in Cameron. He lies buried in old river cemetery near where he fell in an Indian battle. The first court house was a wooden structure, says Mr. Oxsheer. That was in the early part of 1846.

"It was a rude structure of small dimensions," says Mr. Oxsheer, "but abundantly large enough and sufficiently ornate for the plain people who used it. It was about 30 feet east and west by 20 feet north and south, about nine feet high to the eaves." The building was floored with plank cut by whip saw from native timber. There was a window in each end and a door north and south. Two shed rooms were used for clerk's offices. Jacob Gross and Wiley Jones built the first temple of justice.

Historical Background

Milam county was a part of the original Sterling C. Robertson grant. Massalon Farley was the first county judge. He is buried in Oak Hill Cemetery and this year Judge Kemp will mark his grave, a piece of stone to be removed from the present court house. The county seat was originally at Nashville on the Brazos near Gause. Judge Farley was secretary to Sterling C. Robertson. The county seat was later moved to Caldwell. The county originally included a number of Texas counties, among them Robertson, Burleson, Lee and Bell. From 1837 to 1846 the county seat was at Nashville and Caldwell. It was moved to Cameron in 1846.

Court House Moved

Miss Robbins relates that the original court house was used for several years then moved to near the present site of the jail. A two story frame building was erected in its place. The original court house was improved and made into a hotel. Tragedy marked the history of the second building. The second floor was used for a dance hall by the people of the community. One night county clerk Williams, was shot and killed by Jim Boles. He was jerked from his wife's side as they emerged from the ball room and shot. The down stairs part of the building was used for offices. It was destroyed by fire on April 9, 1874 and with it all the records of the county.

Rented Hotel

Bereft of a court house the commissioners court issued warrants to Sheriff W. E. Mitchenson for $295 for rent of the old Phillips Hotel, the first court house. "No definite steps were taken for the new court house until June 2, 1875," says Miss Robbins. "P. J. Jackson was requested to get draftmen to draw plans and publish them in order that bids might be received. The dimensions were to be 50x60." It was to be a brick structure, as shown by the bids.

Miss Robbins sets out the bids for both brick work and wood work. Arnold & Jackson were given contract for the building for $5900 and Thomas Booth bid successfully for the wood work at $5350. Thus the new structure cost $11,250. Of this amount $1125 was contributed by citizens. The building was enclosed by an iron fence and lightning rods were installed. The water supply then was an underground cistern long since filled in.

Plans for New Court House

In time this building became inadequate. In November, 1889 says Miss Robbins the grand jury reported the building unsafe, and recommended a new building. Judge E. Y. Terral advertised in the Galveston Daily News and in December of that year new plans were received. An injunction was obtained through Judge John Henderson for interested citizens who believed the old court house good enough. When figures were obtained it was to convince citizens that a new building would be the most economical. Judge Terral advertised in the Galveston News and Fort Worth Gazette for bids. The architects were Lamour & Watson of Austin. Lee & Plummer got the contract for $82,375.00.

Law Suit Threatens

A controversy arose over the bonds of contractors and the county made plans to abandon the building plans, but the contractors threatened suit and the differences of opinion having been somewhat composed the court opened negotiations again and finally awarded the contract for $75,040. Bonds were issued and have been paid off. Within 18 months the court house was completed and on April 20, 1892 it was inspected and accepted. Limestone from Bell County was used in the building. The building was then without a tower. On August 16, 1893 an order was made to build a tower in which a clock might be placed. It was not until May 17, 1895 that the clock was installed. For rich melody the clock has in tones of rich melody tolled the hours of day and night and above the tower the statue of Justice stands to interpret the spirit of historic Texas civilization.

FILM STUDIO

to an announcement made today by Manager Stanley Swift.

This studio on wheels, he said, combines facilities for both the recording as well as the projection of sound motion pictures, and the sound equipment aboard the studio in itself is valued at close to $50,000. It is the regulation Western Electric apparatus used in Hollywood studios and in principal theatres throughout the country.

During the studio's visit here, this equipment will be open for public inspection by citizens of this city and section. They will be permitted to enter the studio, and will have an opportunity not only of seeing the equipment which makes the talkies talk, but will be able to see the operations manifested in both the filming as well as the projection of sound films on the screen.

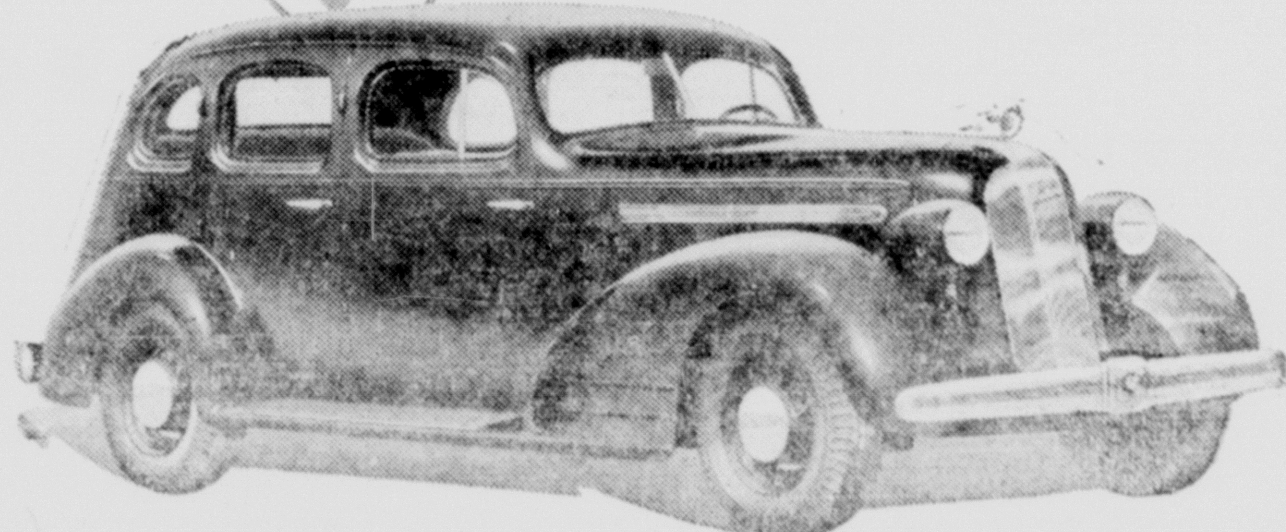

Sound technicians from the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios in Culver City, California, where the great M-G-M pictures are produced, are numbered among the distinguished Hollywood party traveling with the studio, and visitors to the studio on wheels will be privileged to interview the motion picture men when the studio arrives here.

One of Hollywood's outstanding makeup artists, Marcia LaPine, who officially represents the Max Factor makeup studios in Hollywood, and who has a wealth of experience making up stars at the studios there, will visit here with the Hollywood caravan and will gladly answer any questions on makeup asked him by feminine visitors to the studio, it is announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory B. Camp of Rockdale are moving to Cameron this week to make their home. They will be located in the cottage north of the W. H. Triggs home.

Now on display for the first time in this city

the New Pontiac STANDARD SIX

An Additional line of cars whose quality and beauty make the price phenomenal

Today Pontiac presents the Standard Six line—even lower in price and offering many of the features that the 1935 De Luxe Six and Improved Eight introduced with such sensational success. All models have the speedlined styling that gained Pontiac the name of the most beautiful thing on wheels. The bodies are solid steel "Turret-Top" Bodies by Fisher. The brakes are big hydraulics, triple-sealed against dirt and moisture. The new ride resulting from stabilized, synchronized springing, is every bit as comfortable as you could ask for. The engine, with its silver-alloy bearings, provides dependable performance so smooth and lively that you will doubt it is a six. And, best of all, its economy will literally amaze anyone who has had experience with other low-priced cars! A look, a ride and you'll decide you simply can't do better.

Personel Mention

Former Congressman Wm. D. Upshaw of Atlanta, Georgia, closed a week's meeting here, preaching his closing sermon Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. He goes to Crockett for a three days' meeting and will then go to Houston where he will hold a week's meeting in the Richey tabernacle.

Mrs. Mary Maples has returned from Rockdale where she visited relatives for a few days.

W. A. Sproul of Ben Arnold was here Saturday transacting business.

Sherman Dixon of Waco, former citizen of Milam county, who is now traveling for a coffin factory in Waco, was a Cameron visitor Monday.

One of the old time readers of the Herald on Route 2 out of Buckholts is Mrs. D. C. Lewis who lives on her farm there. She lived on this farm for more than 40 years and is a pioneer in that section of Milam county. She is an aunt of L. T. Lewis, former cashier of the Citizens National Bank. Mrs. Lewis appreciates the Herald because it gives the news and important events both current and historical. The publishers appreciate this continued reader support from Mrs. Lewis.

Because the Herald carries the news of his section and especially the club news, R. A. Zaleska of Buckholts Route 2 will be a reader of the Herald in 1935. He was a business visitor in the city Saturday and while here took advantage of his visit to become a reader. Mr. Zaleska has the thanks of the publishers for this reader support and they trust he finds much pleasure in reading the Herald in 1935.

W. J. Canady, veteran reader on Route 2 out of Cameron, has just sent to this office by the obliging carrier, Archie McLerran on Route 2 out of Cameron, his renewal for another year. The publishers are greatly appreciative of this reader support from Mr. Canady who is one of the substantial citizens of Milam County and takes active interest in the affairs of his community. Mr. Canady expresses the hope that conditions will continue to improve.

R. B. Self of Gause was in Cameron the past week and called to have a correction made in the reading date of the Herald. Mr. Self has advanced his reading date to 1936 and the publishers appreciate his reader support. Mr. Self believes that conditions will be greatly improved within another year and appreciates the progress that has been made thus far.

From the Majestic Hotel in Marlin comes a brief message from Mrs. Mary Easterwood Looney who is spending the winter in that city. She will return in the spring to her beautiful country home at Branchville near her large farm in the Little River bottom. Mrs. Looney spent the winter of 1933 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hefley in Cameron and she has many friends in the city who will be glad to know that she is finding much pleasure in the city of Marlin during the winter months. Mrs. Looney has been a reader of the Herald for many years and the paper is being mailed to her address in Marlin.

Back to the reader list comes the name of Joe Thompson a veteran subscriber. He will read the Herald again in 1935 and the publishers appreciate this reader support from Mr. Thompson. For many years Mr. Thompson was a leading dairyman in this vicinity. He lives on his own farm east of the city on the river road and gets his mail on Route 1 out of Milano. For some months he has not engaged in the dairy business but still owns a portion of his herd.

Frank Polk of 1005 Shelley Street in Austin, traveling salesman, will read the Herald again in 1935. He plans to ship to Cameron in the near future a solid car load of Crystal White soap. He was in the city last week end to look after his sales in this territory. Mr. Polk has been a reader of the Herald for some time to keep in touch with Cameron merchants and the trend of business here.

From Rosebud Route 3 comes the renewal subscription for two years from Charles Maas who has been a reader of the Herald for many years. He has lived in that section of Milam county for a number of years and owns a good farm in that section. The publishers appreciate Mr. Maas' selection of the Herald for the next two years. He takes an active interest in the affairs of his community and is well known in the Burlington community and was a candidate for commissioner in 1928.

Mrs. Leland Denson and children were week end guests of Dr. and Mrs. John L. Denson. Dr. Leland Denson and family are moving to Cameron about the 15th of February coming from west Texas. He will be associated with his father, Dr. John Denson.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Roberts are the proud parents of a fine 6 3-4 pound boy that arrived at the hospital Monday morning January 28. He has been named Alvin Lynn. Both mother and babe are doing nicely.

J. B. Parnell of Glen Rose is in Cameron to visit for a few days with his son, J. D. Parnell, vocational teacher in Yoe High.

CAR STOLEN

A new 1934 Chevrolet sedan belonging to H. N. Maddox was stolen last night. Sheriff R. M. Kennedy and deputies were bending every effort to locate the machine taken while Mr. Maddox was visiting in the city.

Approaching Marriage of Miss Loraine Wade To H. L. Blanton of Waco Is Announced

Complimenting Miss Loraine Wade a prospective bride of February 10, Miss Grace Eplen entertained Friday evening with a bridge party at her home.

A pretty valentine motif was carried out in the decorations and gave pleasing effect in all appointments. The three tables of bridge presented a pretty sight, and players gathered around and enjoyed a number of spirited games, followed by serving cake and hot fruit punch on decorated trays which were centered with old fashioned colonial dolls.

At the table the honoree was seated, a beautiful bride doll cake was standing. Other guests received smaller dolls.

A unique scroll rested in dainty china slippers that bore the following announcement: "Loraine and H. L. February 10th," which conveyed the happy news of the date of the wedding of Miss Loraine Wade to H. L. Blanton of Waco. During the refreshment hour the hostess received a telegram from the prospective groom conveying his best wishes for the occasion.

Miss Wade is a beautiful, talented young lady, possesses a fine voice, and has given her talent on many occasions.

The bridegroom is in business in Waco, and has many friends. They will make their home in Waco.

Miss Jewell Hickman Becomes Bride Of Lester Hughes, Cameron Business Man

Lester Hughes and Miss Jewell Ann Hickman surprised their many friends by getting married Sunday morning January 27 at Franklin, the Rev. Frank Cheverens, Baptist pastor, reading the wedding ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hickman of Jones Prairie and well known in Cameron where she has made many friends. She was attractively dressed in a blue costume with gray accessories.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hughes of McKinney, where he was reared, coming to Cameron more than a year ago and took charge of Duke & Ayres as manager. Since making his home in Cameron he has made many friends here. He is a splendid young business man, and Cameron people are pleased that they will make their home here.

W. M. S. MEETING

All circles of the W. M. S. of the First Baptist Church will meet at homes of members next Monday.

The L. M. circle will meet with Mrs. H. R. Dobbins, Mrs. W. H. Henley will be hostess to circle members of the L. M. H. and the U. T. G. circle will meet with Mrs. Joe Denson. All circles will have Bible Study.

Miss Gussie Rowlett will go to Milano Tuesday where she will hold an all day study class with the women of the Milano Baptist church.

Among the new readers to receive their first issue of the Herald this week is J. L. Calloway of the Milam Candy Company. He was born and reared in Robertson county in the Mamford valley country, a picturesque section of Texas. He is a valued member of the sales staff of the candy company and has many friends in Cameron. The publishers are glad to number him among the big family of readers.

I. O. Looney and mother, Mrs. Ike Looney of Bartlett were guests of her daughter, Mrs. G. B. Taylor the first of the week.

Allen Varner of Gause, pioneer business man, was in the city Wednesday. He spends a great deal of his time in Houston. His son, G. R. Varner is in active charge of the Varner Mercantile interests in Gause. A reader of the Herald for many years, he has just given his renewal for another year and also the Herald is mailed to Mrs. Willie Grigsby, a sister, who is in the offices of George Sheppard, Comptroller in Austin.

J. D. Parnell, vocational teacher at Yoe High School, led a body of students to the Hairston farm at Marlow Monday afternoon for a cut and demonstration. About 15 farmers attended the meeting. The demonstration was sponsored by R. R. Report of College Station and conducted by Mr. Parnell.

COTTON REPORT

Census report shows that there were 39,376 bales of cotton ginned in Milam county from the crop of 1934 prior to January 16, 1935 as compared with 48,174 bales ginned to January 16, 1934, crop of 1933.

L. Wilson has returned from Houston and Goose Creek where he visited his children.

Misses Frances and Agnes Hebner left Sunday night for a month's visit with relatives in California.

Mrs. Nadine Sapp entertained Wednesday afternoon with a bridge party at her home. A delightful afternoon was spent in games, concluding with a dainty refreshment course being served.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Gohmert and family spent Sunday in Rockdale, guests of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stasa of Bryan visited in the home of John Richter Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Taylor spent Sunday in Pendleton visiting his brother and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kilian of Austin spent Wednesday in Cameron guests of Mrs. Copas.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Balwsek of Elmaton, Texas, have sent out announcement of the arrival of a fine son born January 20th, who has been named Raymond Edwin. The youngster weighed 8 3-4 pounds. The mother before her marriage was Miss Angelina Tomasek and was reared in and near Cameron.

Mrs. Earl Burke and Mrs. Mattie Shepherd spent Wednesday in Marlin guests of Mrs. Burke's mother, Mrs. B. B. Cooley.

MEETING AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

A fellowship meeting was held Monday evening at the Christian church led by Rev. Maurice Groves of Fort Worth. Plans were discussed for future work of the church.

Concluding the services refreshments were served in cafeteria style.

From Milano comes a reminder from Hon. C. M. Beard that he had not received the current issues of the Herald. The publishers were in error and the correction has been made. Mr. Beard is among the large number of old readers to select the Herald again in 1935. He has been a reader of this newspaper for 47 years. In this almost half a century of time much history has been made. Mr. Beard has had a hand in the affairs of Texas. He served in the Legislature, retiring in 1920. The Herald was established in 1860, some 75 years ago. In March this year the Herald will have reached its 75th birthday. The publishers hope to have something of interest in that issue from old time readers like Mr. Beard, who now lives on his farm near Milano and although no longer in official life, he takes a normal interest in public affairs.

Attending from Cameron were Miss Rowlett, Mrs. R. G. Grabein, Mrs. Mattie Shepherd, Mrs. Gus Evans, Mrs. Preston Graves, Mrs. J. E. Bell, Mrs. T. A. Howell, Mrs. E. G. Lowe, Mrs. Joe Denson, Mrs. William Henderson, Mrs. John Denson and Mrs. E. M. Casey.

GOOD CHEER BRIDGE CLUB

The Good Cheer Bridge Club was entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Lester Glass. The home was beautifully decorated with a variety of flowers and table accessories added beauty to the scene. During the afternoon Mrs. Sam McDermott made highest score with Mrs. Raymond Sharpe scoring second highest. The hostess served lemon pie and coffee at the conclusion of the games. Mrs. C. D. Davidson was a guest of the club and assisted the hostess during the social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Collins have moved to Cameron from Rockdale and are located in the Mamie Laird apartment near the Baptist church. Misses Nannette Roundtree and Doris McCall of Rockdale spent the week end here with Miss Alice Rylander.

E. L. Griffith will read the Herald again in 1935, having advanced his reading date for another year. Mr. Griffith owns the Auditorium Barber Shop and has been one of the leading business men here for years. He has been a reader of the Herald for a long time and the publishers appreciate his reader support.

Being About People and Things In Cameron

C. M. Beard of Milano, former legislator and friend of education in Milam county, was in the city Tuesday and visited in the offices of the Publisher. He renewed his subscription to 1937 and that extension will complete his fiftieth year as a Herald subscriber. Mr. Beard will pay no more subscriptions after that date, but by special request of the publisher will receive the paper complimentary. He was born in Trinity county in the Comanche country and when a small boy was brought to Milam county by his parents to escape the dangers of the frontier. His father was a native of Illinois but of Southern parentage, having been born after the family moved from Tennessee. They later returned and came to Texas where Mr. Beard was born. Mr. Beard at one time sought to make Milano school the best school of its denomination in Texas. He hopes this year to get relief for his section from excessive road taxes.

S. W. Law, land owner and farmer, is among the many new readers of the Herald this week. He will receive his first issue this week at his rural address on Route 1. Mr. Law spends much of his time on the farm and has a nice home adjacent to his broad acres. For many years Mr. Law was manager and secretary-treasurer of the Cameron Cemetery Association and his record is one of the outstanding civic contribution in the history of Cameron. His management of the cemetery was a notable success. The publishers appreciate his reader support.

E. C. Cole, agent for the Southern Pacific is a busy man these days. He is doing all possible to bring a hearing by the Railroad Commission on the proposed truck line routes to Cameron. In addition to his services with the railway he is president of the Commercial Club, the name of which he hopes to change to the Chamber of Commerce and has the support of the business men. He has been a reader of the Herald for some time and has renewed again for 1935.

L. L. Blaylock, former sheriff of Milam county, is among the many old readers to renew his Herald again for two years, advancing his reading date to 1936. Mr. Blaylock retired from office on January 1 after 14 years as sheriff of Milam county.

His record is one of the best of any similar peace officer in the state. Mr. Blaylock has been ill for some weeks but is much improved from an influenza attack. He recently purchased the W. M. Cobb home in north Cameron and with his family is now located at his new home. Many friends over the county will welcome this good news from the former good sheriff.

George Banzhaf, for nearly four decades has been a County Agent. He is the oldest agent in Texas in point of service to the United States Government. In recent months he has been Milam County's biggest business man. All details of the government acts to aid agriculture together with livestock and other aids, poured through his offices in the federal building. He has turned in a good job and was recently given a vote of confidence and commendation by the Commissioners Court. A reader of the Herald for many years, he has just renewed again.

Dewey Green of Gause was in Cameron this week to advertise in the Herald his farm stock and chickens for sale. Also Mr. Green wants to sell his 110 acre well improved farm near Gause. He will soon move to the Plains country near Farwell in Parnell county. Mrs. Green's father, J. M. Lankford owns a section of land at Texaco on the New Mexico line. Mr. and Mrs. Green were married in Clovis. He is a native of Arkansas but has lived in Milam county since 1916. W. J. Green, his father, owns 220 acres of land near Gause. They expect to leave for Farwell about March 1.

HENRY-LESSON RADCLIFFE

PETER AT PENTICOST

International Sunday School Lesson
for February 10, 1935

GOLDEN TEXT: "And Peter said unto them, Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." Acts 2:38. (Lesson Text: Acts 2:22-28, 36-41)

Just before Jesus took his final departure from earth in his physical form he told his disciples that they were witnesses but to wait in the city until they received power from on high. Therefore, there is no record of the gospel having been preached immediately thereafter but we find the disciples gathered, as many think in the upper room at Jerusalem, waiting for the Day of Pentecost, at which time they expected the great event.

The events of the second chapter of Acts took place on the Day of Pentecost. "Pentecost," a Greek word meant fiftieth, meaning that fifty days had passed since the Passover. In the Old Testament the great Jewish feast was called by several names, one of which was "Feast of Harvest," but in the New Testament this time is known as Pentecost.

To the waiting disciples there came a marvelous exhibition of divine power which reached to and was shared by each. Accompanied by a sound "as of a rushing mighty wind," and seen as a tongue of fire, the Holy Spirit descended upon the disciples, ushering in a new dispensation under which all men may receive the same great gift. From this time on we find these disciples vigorous and active in preaching the new gospel.

"The Holy Spirit, as a divine personal Presence," says William B. Eerdmans, "so wrought upon or exercised himself within the disciples or so influenced them, that the inner subjective change resultant therefrom fitted them for service, and, of course, for holy living also, although note this last is never mentioned as a result of the filling received by the Apostles. It is God himself in the Presence and Person of the Holy Spirit entering into the throne room of a believer's being, ruling there with power for the perfection of life, and commanding, for the advancement of his Kingdom, the now divinely energized faculties of a God-possessed and God-empowered soul."

As to what happened at Pentecost Stanley Jones says: "First, God, the Living Spirit, became to the disciples immediate, experimental, vital—overwhelmingly so. In the fires of that Living Presence the old self-life was burned up, their interest became merged with his, and henceforth they had one passion—Christ. One desire thereafter, consumed them—to share Christ with men. Second, religion here broke its fetters and became universal. At Pentecost, religion penetrated to the inmost depth of personal need and then rebounded to universality. Never was religion more personal. Never was it more universal and social."

A crowd of people gathered, many doubtless led by curiosity at the strange noise, and it was the Apostle Peter, who so often had impetuously taken the lead in speaking before, who delivered the first sermon. "The Peter of the Day of Pentecost is a new man," says H. B. Swete, "far other than the Peter of the Passover; his words show not only the freedom of speech which was characteristic of this Apostle, but a blending of courage, wisdom and skill which we do not associate with him as he appears in the Gospels, and an insight into the words of the Messiah and the nature of his kingdom such as even to the last day of the Lord's stay upon earth was certainly beyond his reach."

Peter's sermon was remarkable and comprehensive. First, he denied that the conduct of his brethren had been caused by wine, and then began the task of convincing mankind that Jesus was the expected Christ. Four things he cited to prove the fact. First he quoted Old Testament prophecy. Second, he reminded his hearers of the miracles which they had themselves witnessed. Third, the resurrection of Jesus from the dead. Finally, the pouring out of the Holy Spirit. These things Peter told his audience demonstrated the divinity of Jesus, who had been crucified.

Moved by Peter's powerful sermon, many inquired as to what they should do. First of all, replied Peter, repentance is necessary, meaning an inward change of heart is to be reflected in the conduct of life. This spiritual experience must come first to be followed by the rite of baptism, an external ceremony testifying and witnessing the changed life, and this must be "in the name of Jesus Christ." To the true believer would come the gift of the Holy Spirit, even as it had come to Peter and the leaders. This divine power was not set aside for a particular situation but was available to all men who claimed it by conviction and sincerity. Three thousand people were added that day to the followers of Jesus.

DOUBLY
GUARANTEED

1. Against road hazards.
2. Against defects for life.

Skidding—cause of 5½ times more accidents than blow-outs—becomes more dangerous as winter approaches. For quickest stops buy "G-3" Goodyears—proved safest by 8,400 tests.

When you must suddenly jam on your brakes, averting an accident often is a matter of inches. Well, stop tests on slippery pavement show: on smooth tires you slide 77% farther, on other new tires you slide 14% to 19% farther than on new "G-3" Goodyear All-Weathers. That's the Goodyear Margin of Safety—a big reason why more people buy Goodyears than any other tire. Since it costs you nothing extra, why not have this margin of safety on your car too?

First Aid Advice For Frozen Shrub Given By Agent

First aid for the partially frozen shrubs seems to be the only solution for saving the life of the plant since the recent cold wave.

Within a day or two the gardener will be able to detect the parts frozen as the stems and leaves will appear purple and black. Remembering that the sap in these frozen stems begin to ferment after the ice has melted away, means immediate pruning.

To keep this fermentation from going down into the heart of the plant, these limbs must be cut back beyond the frozen portion down to hard wood. In many instances this will mean cutting the plant down to the ground.

MARLOW

Frank Simm and family of Damon spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Noel Posey.

Mr. and Mrs. Greer Burnett and family of Corsicana visited relatives here recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Storey of Galveston are visiting relatives here. Mr. Wade Hardwick returned from Meridian Saturday where he had been on business.

Mrs. Talley visited friends in Mohair recently.

Mrs. J. B. Boatright visited her son, Audrey, at Austin, last week end. He has been seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Pratt and family of Minerva and Mr. and Mrs. William Whittaker and family of Hoyte spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henry.

Lilburn Anthis spent several days last week with relatives at Rockdale.

Neil Ethridge of Beaumont is visiting relatives here.

Miss Winfred Bickett of Dallas is visiting home folks.

SALEM

Mr. and Mrs. Goodhue Rogers and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Moseley Saturday night in Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Reed and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Reed at San Andres.

Mrs. Etta Noey and daughter have returned to their home at Marquez after a month's visit with her son, W. E. Noey.

Those who attended the first quarterly conference at Minerva Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Jackson, Miss Katie and Mr. J. D. Nisbett, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Nabours.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Byer of Waco spent last Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Sims.

Corine Stevens is back in school after several day illness.

Mrs. Iona Monroe of Galveston spent Friday with her sister, Mrs. H. W. Noey.

Lois Noey has returned from a week's visit with her aunt, Mrs. Della Houston at Buckholts.

The Salem School boys and girls went to Tracy Friday afternoon for a game of indoor baseball. The girls won, the score being 28 to 8 in favor of Salem girls. The boys were defeated 7 to 13 in favor of Tracy boys.

Those who attended the baseball game Friday were: Miss Katie and Mr. Nisbett, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Nabours, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Jackson, Teenie, Preston and Verlie Tucker.

Mr. R. H. Mueck visited in Rosebud Sunday.

LION INJURES BEATTY

Rochester, Ind.—Clyde Beatty, wild animal trainer, was knocked across a forty foot training arena by a lion, but managed to hold the animal off with a chair until attendants rescued him. He suffered several broken ribs and was cut and bruised badly.

Miss Lucille McLerran of Waco was a week end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shep McLerran.

Delegates Named For Recreation School In Waco

Delegates to attend the McLennan County Recreation School which is to be held at the Roosevelt Hotel in Waco January 28-31 were selected by the Home Demonstration Council at a recent meeting.

The school is being conducted by representatives from the National Recreational Association and will have charge of training delegates from Falls, Bosque, Milam, San Saba, McLennan and Coryell counties.

Those selected to attend from Milam county were: Mrs. LeRoy Masengale, Maysfield; Miss Nora Kohring, Clarkson; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brewer, Curry, and Mr. Oscar Gross of Bethlehem.

Cuttings Valuable To Increase Garden

"I have added 12 roses to my rose garden from cuttings rooted last year in my cutting bed," states Mrs. Hope Camp, member of the San Gabriel Home Demonstration Club.

The cutting bed is made by digging a pit four feet wide, 6 feet long and 10 inches deep. The pit is then filled with pure sand. Limbs from roses and shrubs are cut approximately 10 inches long and placed in rows 4 inches apart. Cement tiling is often placed in the bottom of pit which provides for watering the roots of the plant during the dry summer days.

A DELIGHTFUL EVENING

Mr. and Mrs. S. Kestenbaum entertained with a delightful dinner at their attractive home Friday evening of last week. The home was decorated with a Valentine motif and the tables were laid with beautiful silver and china.

Guests were present from Cameron, Calvert, Marlin, Temple, Waco, Houston and San Antonio.

BRYANT STATION CLUB NOTES

"When America chooses to face the facts that we need more Foreign trade to use our surplus crops, and that our exports only total a small part of tobacco, cotton and lard, then we can make a definite program of recovery to regain normal prices and the 25 million acres of lay-out land," says Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace in a book review given by Mrs. Bartow McAnulty at the Bryant Station Home Demonstration Club, Thursday January 27.

A demonstration of processed cheese was given by Mrs. B. B. McAnulty to about 12 members. Plans were made for the spring Meat Show.

You are cordially invited to attend the Rose Garden Planting at the home of Mrs. B. F. Talley February 7th.

Mrs. Bartow McAnulty, Reporter.

Rose Culture Will Be Study Course For Home Clubs

A study of the varieties, care and propagation of roses will be the subject for a county-wide school for yard demonstrations Friday, February 1, at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. John Hause, yard demonstrator for the Curry Home Demonstration Club.

Special attention will be given to new and wild planting resistant variations of roses, diseased planting, pruning and fertilizing and rose propagation. During the month of February this program will be repeated in each club by the yard demonstrator.

MILLION IN WEALTH ADDED TO MILAM RURAL HOMES

Demonstration Club Work Responsible for Progress

Within 10 years considerably more than one million dollars in wealth has been added to rural homes as a result of Home Demonstration work begun in 1924.

The ten year period shows an actual cost value $270,187 in food products in addition to the potential wealth of orchards and trees. An example of growth is indicated by the figures for 1924 which show the value of food products to be only $1100 while in 1934 their value was $64,861. The food value of food products have almost doubled since 1933.

Miss Strange in making her annual report to the department disclosed that 233 demonstrations were held in 1934 and 16 exhibits held. There are 2300 white families in the county. In all 46,940 quarts of food and 64,169 pounds of dried and cured products were added to the pantries in rural Milam county.

Yard improvements include: 88 lawns; 2448 doorstep plants; 2598 screen plants; 362 trees; 2326 native trees; 14,390 cuttings living.

In bedroom improvements 274 pieces of furniture were upholstered; 765 pieces bed linen added, 32 closets, 59 rugs, 122 curtains, 51 floors finished and 72 walls improved.

As a result of the year's work 2976 families were aided in making a total of 85 per cent reached. Of interest was the recreational entertainment with 990 held and approximate attendance 10,500.

Home Demonstration work functions through organized girls and womens clubs, through club members in the form of expansion work, and the city council, all of which are under the supervision of the Agent.

The work is carried to unorganized communities through the expansion of the club women and through the organization of new clubs. Ten new clubs have been added this year.

All clubs meet regularly twice each month—once independently of the Agent. The girls meet once each month with Sponsors in charge. Material for this meeting is given out at Sponsors council each month. The Women's club meet once without agent and material. Plans and suggestions for programs are given out at the regular meeting of the council.

It is the goal of each club to reach 85 per cent of the farm people. Undoubtedly 85 per cent of the 2300 farm families in the county have been reached through home demonstration agencies.

The Home Demonstration Council consists of the Presidents and one elected delegate from each club and meet regularly the 4th Wednesday of each month. The Council officers consist of Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary-Treasurer, Reporter, Parliamentary, Recreational Director, Chairman and representation from Sponsors Council.

The business of the Home Demonstration work is conducted by the Council. The Council sponsors exhibits, Meat Show, Achievement Days, Yearbook publication, and makes contact between co-operative agencies and rural club women. The Council for 1934 sponsored:

1. Collecting and packing of Dallas Fair exhibits.
2. Meat Shows.
3. Hooked Rug, Quilt, and Tufted Bedsprad exhibit.
4. Sending delegates to Short Course.
5. Annual Rally day.
6. Bread Scoring School.
7. Pattern School.
8. Pattern School.
9. 12 Achievement Day Events.
10. Reporters School.
11. Recreational School—two days.
12. 100 per cent collection of Educational funds in county.

How Others Co-operate

Organizations and individuals co-operated in giving Short Course Scholarship, State Fair trip, in sponsoring exhibits, securing awards for Meat Show, sponsoring Boys and Girls Encampment, Home Demonstration Rally Day as well as Yard, Pantry and Bedroom improvement.

Approximately $100 worth of goods was collected from local merchants by the Commercial Club for Meat Show Prize. The Rockdale merchants through their mayor, requested that they be allowed to furnish a portion of the Meat Show award, and as he said "We want to make that contribution in appreciation for the work the rural women are doing."

The Rockdale Chamber of Commerce financed all expenses for the annual Home Demonstration Rally Day Event for county winner of Bed Room Contest.

Local nurseries co-operated in giving very low prices for nursery and fruit stock.

History Club and Commissioners Court gave Short Course scholarship to girls doing outstanding work.

Yard Improvement

Previous tours and studies of native trees and shrubs, demonstrations on yard planting, lawns, cutting beds, walks and shrub bed cultivation gave Home Demonstration club members a foundation for the 1934 yard program.

To accomplish this work, 51 demonstrations on planting of lawn, summer care of shrubs, pruning, propagation of shrubs, foundation plantings and preparation of school yards for planting were given.

23 special demonstrations were enrolled and yard plans were made for all. Two school yards were planned and planted this year.

Results of this work shows:

- 60 lawns improved.
  - 28 new lawns improved.
  - 88 lawns sodded.
  - 2,448 doorstep and foundation shrubs planted and living.
  - 2,598 screen and border shrubs planted and living.
  - 326 trees planted and living.
  - 2326 native trees and shrubs planted and living.
  - 25 sanitary toilets added.
  - 187 cutting beds made.
  - 14,390 cuttings living.
- List of additional improvements made: 84 yards cleaned, 97 yards planned, 30 walks made, 10 gated, added, 36 fences built and repaired, 8 houses underpinned, 5 rose gardens added, garages, fences, woodpiles moved, total amount spent on yards $157.13.

Interior Home Improvement—Bed Room

Interior improvement centered itself around the bed room in all clubs. This is the third year for Bed Room improvement in the county. The major aim for the year was to have complete, one demonstration in each of the fourteen clubs.

In an effort to accomplish this aim two goals were set:

1. Add one piece of suitable warm bedding.
2. Refinish or upholster one piece of furniture.

In line with these goals fourteen demonstrations on upholstering and refinishing furniture was given. The program on Bedding being given by each of the thirteen demonstrators enrolled.

As a result of the demonstration on upholstering and refinishing furniture, a total of 227 pieces of furniture were refinished and 47 pieces upholstered.

A total of 143 comforters have been added to the bedding supply.

Two hundred seventeen women were involved in bed room improvement trying to reach the goal set at the beginning of the year. Eleven of the thirteen demonstrators entered the Bedroom Contest sponsored by the Council. Merchants co-operated by exchanging paper, paint, furniture, lumber, varnish, etc for canned goods.

A local exhibit of hooked rugs.

quilts and tufted bed spreads was sponsored by Council which created interest in bed room work. An exhibit was also placed in the Pure Food and Style Show.

Results show: 93 rooms improved, 72 walls improved, 53 woodwork improved, 227 furniture refinished, 47 furniture upholstered, 77 pieces of furniture added, 760 pieces of bed linen, 143 comforters, 32 closets, 43 rugs made, 16 mats, 122 bed room curtains, 20 mattresses added.

Total value of rugs, mats, lined and mattresses made $1097.00. Number other rooms improved 64.

Planning and Providing the Farm Food Supply Pantry

The 4-H pantry demonstrator this year stressed planning an adequate food supply with emphasis on improving the quality of home canned products. In the accomplishment of this work the agent gave a total of 83 demonstrations of planning the farm food supply, hot beds, pruning and staking tomatoes, yeast breads, jelly making, vegetable canning, insect control, meat canning, and school lunches preparation. Demonstration on beverages were given by sponsors of Girls Clubs.

Results of Pantry Work

As a result of work on quality products 6 women have standardized products and are selling under the "Better 4-H Products" label.

Following the month's demonstration on Yeast Bread, the Bread Scoring school was held with 54 entries for scoring.

In spite of limiting the entries for the meat show, 415 entries in individual exhibits were shown. "There is a marked improvement in the quality of meat shown over that exhibited last year," was the remark made by Miss Blair, after judging the products.

Pantry Events:

1. 12 Pantry Achievement Days with 839 in attendance.

2. Exhibit both of home demonstration products shown at Pure Food and Style Show.

3. 66 entries of canned products exhibited by 4-H Girls at encampment.

4. 34 canned products sent to State Fair with two first place winners.

5. Meat Show, 415 entries.

6. Bread School.

7. Canned products exhibit, arranged by Gause Club in Gause, serving as preliminary to Achievement Day.

Food Preservation Summary

8870 quarts leafy vegetables.
4333 quarts starchy vegetables.
4366 quarts other vegetables.
7625 quarts canned fruit or fruit juices.
4467 quarts canned tomatoes or tomato juice.

4238 quarts pickles or relishes.
736 quarts miscellaneous.

Wardrobe

Beginning the last of September, 1934 with the wardrobe demonstration as a part of the 1935 program. Results are now in evidence. A foundation pattern school was given and since that time 30 demonstrators have been enrolled.

Results thus far shows:
102 Foundation Patterns complete.
16 Foundation Patterns unfinished.
108 dresses made using Foundation pattern.

Seventeen demonstrators taking inventory and record of clothing expenses up to date.

Plants One Seed at a Time or More, If Desired

JOHN DEERE No. 110 COTTON AND CORN PLANTER

The John Deere No. 110 is the accurate one-row riding cotton and corn planter. It drops one cotton seed at a time—or more, if desired—in any quantity per acre. It saves seed and saves chopping.

The John Deere Saw-Tooth Type Steel Picker Wheel—an exclusive feature—picks out even the finest cotton seeds and plants them to the best advantage, at the same time removing lint and trash from the hopper. It handles wet seed and dry seed with equal efficiency.

The No. 110 is equipped with John Deere Natural Drop Seed Plates for planting corn, peanuts, feterita, milo, kafir, and other seed, giving you what users say is the most dependable seeding mechanism ever used on a planter.

We can furnish this planter with either shovel or runner style opener and with spring trip or friction trip covering shovels. Fertilizer attachment furnished as an extra.

The balance of Power is a bank balance.

Place, properties and prestige are wasted on folk who haven't also inherited the qualities which won them.

That's why thrones are passing from the picture and so many who once sat in the lap of luxury are cocking eyes at park benches.

1935 COTTON CONTRACT EXPLAINED BY AGENT HERE

Rules of Eligibility Under Federal Aid are Explained

Any producer of cotton who is an owner, cash tenant, standing or fixed rent tenant, or managing-share tenant jointly with the landlord, and who operates or controls a farm on which cotton was planted in 1933 and 1934 and on which will be planted in 1935 and which was not covered by a 1934 and 1935 Cotton Acreage Reduction Contract in 1934, may be a party to a contract covering such farm for the year 1935, subject to these administrative Rulings and such as may hereafter be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture:

Except that—
Any such producer operating a farm on which cotton was not planted in 1933 and 1934 because such farm was in 1933 and 1934 planted to perennial crops in a regular rotation or because such farm was covered by an agreement with the Government to eradicate the pink boll worm, but on which farm cotton was planted during the period of 1928 to 1932 and on which cotton will be planted in 1935 (subject to the administrative Ruling No. 10 Form to a 1935 Cotton Acreage Reduction Contract covering such farm for the year 1935.

Determination of Base Acreage and Average Yield. After it has been determined that the farm in accordance with the administrative Ruling No. 1 (1935) is eligible to be covered by a contract in 1935, the base acreage and average yield per acre shall be computed upon one of the following bases. In case a farm is eligible under some other than one base, the first applicable base in order of presentation below shall be used.

(a) Cotton Was Planted in 4 or 5 Years of Base Period, 1928 to 1932 Inclusive.

In such case the base acreage shall be determined by dividing the total acreage planted to cotton on the land now in the farm during the base period by 4 or 5 (irrespective of the fact that cotton was planted in 1933 and 1934), as the case may be, and the average yield per acre shall be determined by dividing the average production, determined in the same manner, by such base acreage.

(b) Cotton Was Planted in Only 3 Years of the Base Period, 1928 to 1932, Inclusive, One of Which Was Either 1931 or 1932:

In such case the base acreage shall be determined by dividing the total acreage planted to cotton on the land now in the farm during the three years by 3 (irrespective of the fact that cotton was planted in 1933 and 1934), and the average yield per acre shall be determined by dividing the average production, determined in the same manner, by such base acreage.

(c) Cotton was planted in Only 1931 and 1932 of the Base Period, 1928, to 1932, Inclusive:

In such case the base acreage shall be determined by dividing the total acreage planted to cotton on the land now in the farm during the two years by 2 (irrespective of the fact that cotton may have been planted in 1933 and 1934), and the average yield per acre shall be determined in the same manner, by such base acreage.

(d) Cotton Was Planted in 1932 of the Base Period, 1928 to 1932, inclusive, and in 1933 but neither (a), (b), nor (c) above are Applicable:

In such case the base acreage shall be determined by dividing the total acreage planted to cotton on the land now in the farm during the two years by 2 (irrespective of the fact that cotton was planted in 1934), and the average yield per acre shall be assigned by the Community Committee, subject to the approval of the County Committee, as fair and equitable average yield for land of similar character in the particular community for the period of 1928 to 1932.

(e) Cotton Was Planted in 1933 but neither (a), (b), (c), nor (d) above are applicable:

In such case the base acreage shall be the actual acreage planted to cotton on the land now in the farm in 1933 (irrespective of the fact that cotton may have been planted in

Louisa's Letter

PEOPLE LET YOU VALUE YOUR OWN THINGS

Dear Girls:

Everyone thinks that Sally Green is a fine wife and mother. And why shouldn't they think so, for Sally is of that opinion herself and has sold the idea to her whole family as well as to her friends.

Her husband, Jim, is also considered a splendid man and for the same reason.

One never hears a disparaging remark about one of them from the other. While they do not bore other people with a recital of their partner's fine qualities, neither of them pass up an opportunity of letting folks know what clever, competent, loyal companions they married. They have a high opinion of themselves and of each other, and other people accept them at their own valuation.

And while I am on the subject, I should like to tell you about two little girls I once knew. Everything that Jane had she thought was splendid. Marjory, the younger sister, imagined that what she had was never quite as nice as Jane's. On one occasion their mother bought two hats just alike excepting for the flowers around the crown—those were the days when people bought hats to wear on Easter for the first time. Jane immediately said that hers was the prettiest hat she had ever seen. Marjory was green with envy, and so unhappy that Jane's mother finally persuaded her to trade hats with Marjory. As soon as Jane realized that she was the owner of the other hat she decided that she liked red poppies better than pink rosebuds anyway, and by night had poor Marjory regretting that she had ever consented to a trade.

And so it is with the Greens and Browns. John Brown complains that his wife is lazy and extravagant, while Clara Brown tells all and sundry about John's mean ways and undependability.

And folks accept them at their own valuation. "Folks who live with a person usually knows them," they say, "and though he seems to be a fine fellow, I guess that is just a front he wears for the public."

So let us remember that if we would try to help our partners on to success, one of the best ways is to let the public know that we admire and approve of them, ourselves. And remember this also, that when we are helping them to success, we are working for ourselves as well.

Yours,
LOUISA.

Will there be enough Hot Water?

When hot water is needed for dish-washing or a quick hot bath, this question is never raised in homes where there is an automatic gas water heater! With one of these automatics the modern home is assured of a never-ending supply of hot water without the bother of even lighting a match! It costs little to operate, and little to own with our easy deferred payments. So, modernize!

SHARP 4-H CLUB

The Sharp 4-H Club met January 23, 1935 at 9 o'clock with Mrs. Middleton, the sponsor.

Mrs. Middleton showed the girls how to make a cutting bed. She gave the girls some cuttings and checked their aprons and sewing boxes.

Although it was cold, eleven members were present.

Our next meeting will be with Miss Strange, February 6 at the yard demonstrator's home, Flora Schroeder.

Bertie Cummings, Reporter.

Constipated?

The doctors say . . .

Use liquid treatment

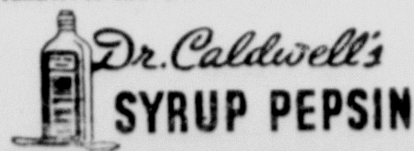

Here is the soundest advice anyone can give on the subject of laxatives. It is based on medical opinion. We want you to have the benefit of this information no matter what laxative you may buy:

The secret of real relief from constipation is reduced dosage. You can't regulate the bowels unless you can regulate the help you give them. That is why doctors use a liquid laxative, the dose can be measured to a drop.

Avoid laxatives that you can't cut down in dosage, especially those that seem to require larger doses than when you began their use.

Under the doctor's care, you usually get a liquid laxative. The right liquid laxative gives the right kind of help, and the right amount of help. Smaller and smaller doses—until you don't need any.

The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara—natural laxatives that form no habit.

County Depository

Notice is hereby given, that sealed proposals will be received at the February term, A. FEEL TIRED, ACHY—
"ALL WORN OUT?"

Get Rid of Poisons That Make You Ill

Is a constant backache keeping you miserable? Do you suffer burning, scanty or too frequent urination; attacks of dizziness, rheumatic pains, swollen feet and ankles? Do you feel tired, nervous—all unstrung?

Then give some thought to your kidneys. Be sure they function properly, for functional kidney disorder permits poisons to stay in the blood and upset the whole system.

Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are for the kidneys only. They help the kidneys cleanse the blood of health-destroying poisonous waste. Doan's Pills are used and recommended the world over. Get them from any druggist.
